

TEEN IMPACT

The following needs that are listed below are necessary for our ministry to operate in the manner we need so we are able to maximize our outreach to teenage athletes here in Arizona.

Our organization runs under Life Association of Relevant Churches, which holds a 501c3 certification, so all money donated will be tax deductible.

Expenses

- Food for weekly meetings. The current plan is two times per month at Barro's Pizza which is located at 7th Street & Coral Gables in Phoenix
 - o $500 per month

- New bibles to give to the teen athletes who attend our meetings.
 - o $1000 for 100 sport themed bibles

- Building an interactive website that includes video testimonies of current and former Christian professional athletes.
 - o $1000

- Performing school assemblies for institutions that cannot afford to bring in one of our speakers. The current plan is a minimum of two assemblies per month starting in the fall of 2011.
 - o $250 per assembly
